

Team Roster and Liability Waiver

ALL PLAYERS agree to the following Liability Release and Indemnity Agreement. The team and players listed on the roster in consideration of and as part payment for the right to participate in the Atomic Shootout tournament, hereby agree to the following statements: They understand that soccer is a game involving physical exertion, speed, and physical contact. That participation in soccer potentially could result in serious injury or death arising out of field conditions, player conduct, and other factors including random chance. They understand that participation in this activity is at their own risk. They, their children, heirs, executors, and administrators agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Atomic Shootout, City and County of Prosser, Columbia Basin Soccer Association, Washing State Soccer Association, all other organizations providing soccer services, and all individual board members, officers, directors, officials, sponsors, agents, or employees of those organizations listed. The entities and individuals so named shall have no liability for accident, injury, or property loss suffered by the participants which may arise out of, or in connection with, participation in this activity. They so acknowledge that no insurance is carried for this program by the Atomic Shootout and that they will secure any coverage they feel is necessary. They further state that they are of lawful age and legally competent to agree to this affirmation, release, hold harmless, and indemnity agreement. They understand the terms herein are contractual and not mere recital, and that they are participating under this agreement of their own free will.
